ST. THOMAS AQUINAS COLLEGE

SCHOOL
OF BUSINESS

MOMENTUM AT A GLANCE

The School of Business at St. Thomas Aquinas College is advancing a forward-looking model for business education where experiential learning, emerging technologies, and industry engagement intersect to prepare students for leadership in a rapidly changing global economy.

Integrating academic rigor with real-world application, the School equips graduates not only to succeed in their first role, but to shape the future of business itself.

A COLLEGE OF THE FUTURE MODEL FOR BUSINESS LEADERSHIP

- A forward-looking business education that integrates academic rigor, technological fluency, experiential learning, and industry engagement
- Programs designed to prepare students for industries increasingly shaped by technology, data, and global competition
- An expanding graduate portfolio including MBA concentrations in Artificial Intelligence, Business Analytics, and Cybersecurity
  - MBA enrollment is up more than 50% this year

STRONG ACADEMIC FOUNDATIONS WITH PATHWAYS TO LEADERSHIP

- Dynamic undergraduate business programs that equip students with the skills, perspective, and confidence to lead in a rapidly evolving business landscape
- Forward-focused curriculum centered on leadership, strategy, and analytical decision making, with a seamless pathway into advanced MBA study

HANDS-ON LEARNING THAT CONNECTS THEORY WITH PRACTICE

- Real-time financial analysis and applied experience through the Bloomberg Professional Lab
- Industry-recognized certifications, including HubSpot, Google Analytics, and Bloomberg Market Concepts (BMC), strengthen workforce readiness
- Participation in the College Fed Challenge, where students analyze economic indicators and present their policy recommendations to economists at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York

A REGIONAL HUB FOR ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND BUSINESS ENGAGEMENT

- Partnership with the Lower Hudson Valley Small Business Development Center (SBDC), located on campus, where student interns collaborate with entrepreneurs and small businesses on strategy, operations, and market development
- Internships, co-ops, consulting projects, and case competitions connect classroom learning with real-world business challenges

A NETWORK THAT OPENS DOORS

- Spartan alumni, industry leaders, and our Business Advisory Council actively invest in student success, helping shape programs and provide real-world perspective through mentorship, networking events, panels, and STAC Chats
- Programs such as the KPMG Mentorship Program offer additional experiential opportunities and insights
