Nicholas Scalice is a native of Long Island, New York, graduated from Kellenberg Memorial High School, and is a student-athlete on the Men's Ice Hockey team. Nicholas is grateful for the STAC community and all it has to offer: "My experience so far at STAC has been absolutely amazing. I chose STAC because of how close a relationship you can build with not just the students, but also the faculty and staff! I have most enjoyed the beautiful campus, and the really nice and friendly students I have met already!"
